Guided by Nature, Aligned with Purpose

Voices from those who've walked the path of elemental wisdom and sacred leadership

Christine
Brownlee

"I wish I had taken this course and known about it a long time ago. It would have saved me a great deal of heartache. I had such a dichotomy between my Venus and Mars when my children were young. This would have saved me so much time. Taking this course and embodying the knowledge has helped with friends, family, and co-workers. I can "understand" their strengths and weaknesses. I have used these teachings with a client to help her understand her deceased husband so much better and decrease her grief, shame, and guilt."

Joanna Steffel

"Life purpose Mastery Facilitator helped me see the strengths and weaknesses in myself and witness this within others without judgment. The exploration of the elemental astrological archetypes helped me see the hidden gifts and talents people are sometimes not aware of having. I have found the relationship of how the elements and archetypes breakdown is one piece of a puzzle. When we learn to communicate with these aspects in an honoring and cherishing manner we see how every piece has its purpose in creating a beautiful life design."

Melody Gladden

"What an amazing journey it has been learning and working with the archetypes in my creation team. I learned about archetypes many years ago through Lisa Micheals and it has changed my life forever. This was my second time taking the Life Purpose training and I was shown just how much I had integrated them into my everyday life. I feel confident moving forward with teaching others about their creation team and can't wait to plant more seeds."

Praise for the Path

Experiences from those deepening their purpose and prosperity through nature-aligned guidance

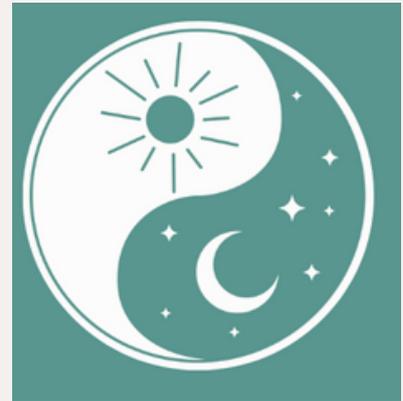

Chantal Debrosse

“Life Purpose Mastery Facilitator has been a deep journey of greater self-discovery. Lisa makes the material understandable and shows you how to embody the teachings. I've gained practical business and life skills that have aligned me with my vision as I manifest my desires. For anyone seeking profound inner knowing, growth, and self-empowerment, I wholeheartedly recommend the Life Purpose Mastery Facilitator experience.”

Sandy Combs

“Lisa’s blend of structure, embodied wisdom, and laser focused intuition have served both my personal and professional development in a multitude of ways. Lisa’s ability to hold deep, compassionate space enabled me to access traumatized aspects of myself that years of traditional therapy couldn’t reach. Utilizing the profound elemental wisdom teachings combined with Lisa’s guidance has given me a framework to build my dreams on, one that grows right alongside me. Working with Lisa Michaels has undeniably been one of the greatest investments of my life.”

Swati Kameswar

“The Life Purpose Mastery program is brilliant! The content and how it is facilitated, takes a complex subject such as the natal chart and makes it applicable to real life immediately. The process of embodiment of the natal chart in the different modules makes this information and energy of your blueprint available to use in a constructive way and uplevels your relationship to self, others and your life purpose.

I am deeply grateful for having gone through this program. I feel a renewed sense of purpose as well as clarity on how to help people embody their creation team while also bringing in creative processes into the mix.”
